Grammar and Punctuation Editing - Answer Guide

Grade 6 | Editing and writing | FR-016

Suggested answers. Accept accurate equivalent responses and supported interpretations. These models are not exhaustive marking rules.

1. yesterday we visit the museum Answer: Yesterday, we visited the museum.

2. the childrens coats were hanging outside Answer: The children's coats were hanging outside.

3. its important to check youre work Answer: It's important to check your work.

4. although it was late we kept reading Answer: Although it was late, we kept reading.

5. the teacher asked have you finished Answer: The teacher asked, 'Have you finished?'

6. each of the boxes were labelled Answer: Each of the boxes was labelled.

7. she said that the answer is incorrect yesterday Answer: Yesterday, she said that the answer was incorrect. Also accept: She said that the answer was incorrect yesterday, if yesterday is intended to describe the answer. Present is can remain if its truth is still current; accept a clearly punctuated, coherent interpretation.

8. the storm was fierce however nobody was hurt Answer: The storm was fierce; however, nobody was hurt.

9. this book is more better than that one Answer: This book is better than that one.

10. neither of the pupils have a ruler Answer: Neither of the pupils has a ruler.